

A Thousand Years of Peace

Introduction.

A. Importance of Bible study.

1. In the Bible, we can find _____.
2. "Do Christians go directly to heaven at death?"
 - a. _____.
 - b. _____.
 - c. _____.

B. What happens when Jesus comes again?

I. The Second Coming of Jesus: Matthew 24:30, 31.

A. The righteous who are saved: I Thessalonians 4:13-18.

1. Righteous dead are _____.
2. Righteous living _____ and meet Jesus _____.

B. The wicked who are lost: Revelation 6:15-17.

1. Wicked are destroyed by the _____ of Jesus' second coming.
2. The wicked who are dead remain in the grave.

C. Satan: Revelation 20:1-3.

1. The bottomless pit = _____
2. Satan is restricted to this earth for a period of _____.

II. One Thousand Years of Peace.

A. What are the righteous doing? Revelation 20:4.

1. Seated on _____.
2. They do the work of _____.

B. Who is being judged? _____

C. Why should God be judged?

1. To vindicate His character.
2. Philippians 2:9-11.

III. The End of the One Thousand Years.

A. Satan and the wicked: Revelation 20:3b, 5, 7; John 5:28, 29.

1. Wicked are _____.
2. Satan is _____.

B. The righteous and the Holy City: Revelation 21:2.

C. The final destruction of Satan and the wicked: Revelation 20:7-10.

1. Satan convinces the wicked to attack the Holy City.
2. Before they do, fire comes down from heaven and _____ them.
3. This fire is intended for _____: Matthew 25:41.

Conclusion.

A. What does God have prepared for us? Revelation 21:3-5.

B. The most important question for you to answer.